1. Introduction

1.1 Funding Institutional

The purpose of this manual is to guide the users on how to use the Funding Institutional. Funding Institutional is a single-source workflow tool which provides funders, funding opportunities and awarded grants data to institutional staff, helping them to get:

- Insight in key funding trends
- Discovery of relevant opportunities
- Decisions on resource allocation

Funding Institutional is developed for institutional staff who analyze the funding landscape and manage the search and selection process, supporting users across the workflow. This tool offers the possibility to the users to:

| Get insight into the funding landscape | Attain an in-depth understanding of the funding landscape using Funding Institutional overviews. Country level overviews show funded research and future funding opportunities, while research area overviews highlight research areas attracting funding. Get insight into past records of success by looking at overviews detailing fund recipients, and past funds won by your peers and competitors. |
| Identify funding opportunities | Search for funding opportunities by research area, keywords, or researcher profiles. You can track opportunities by adding bookmarks and saving favorites. Time-saving features allow you to review, save, and re-use your search histories, while there are notifications that inform you about new funding opportunities. |
| Select funding opportunities | Assess your eligibility to apply for funds by reviewing past successes for your institution. Funding Institutional will look at awarded grant history and identify funders who previously awarded grants to your institution. |
| Disseminate opportunities | Disseminate opportunities to eligible researchers in your institution using publication history and past success rates with the funder. Funding Institutional will limit applications to the number most likely to succeed and allows you to control your communications by: |
| | - setting automatic notifications, |
| | - enriching communications by manually adding information, and |
• sharing communications through a variety of channels.

Funding Institutional helps identify potential collaborators in your institution by looking at publication history and past success in winning grants with the selected funder.

You may refine your search by selecting an option from the All fields drop-down menu.

Available menu items are:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Field</th>
<th>Definition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>All fields</td>
<td>Searches through all details of opportunities.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>Searches only in the titles of opportunities.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Adding Search Terms

If you wish to add more search terms, you have the option to select additional keyword entry rows. You can select various fields for each row while setting up your search.

For example, you may use one search field to search titles, and another to search abstracts.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Abstract</th>
<th>Searches only in the abstracts of opportunities</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Opportunity number</td>
<td>Searches only external IDs of opportunities. An external ID is one assigned to an opportunity by the funding body.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Funder</td>
<td>Searches only opportunities with this funder name</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Using Boolean Operators with Your Search

While adding additional search rows, you have the option to use the Boolean operators: “And, Or, And not” with your search.
3.2.4 SEARCH TIPS

- The Boolean operator AND narrows your search so you will see fewer funding opportunities, while OR broadens your search, resulting in more listed opportunities.

- Using the singular form of a word in your search finds both the singular and plural forms for most words. For example, heart attack finds results listing heart attack and heart attacks.

- To find documents where your search terms appear together, enclose your phrase in double quotes. For example, “stem cell” returns documents with both stem and cell. Without double quotes, stem cell returns documents with the words stem and cell throughout the document and not necessarily together.

3.3 LIMITED SUBMISSION

Use the Limited submission filter to narrow your search to show only opportunities with a limited submission.

A limited submission is a restriction set by funders on the number of applications that may be submitted by an institution in response to a given opportunity. In such cases, institutions may decide to open an internal procedure to select the final applications that may be submitted.
